

Long-Form Notice

Georgia Carol Workman v. Park National Bank

NOTICE OF PENDING CLASS ACTION AND PROPOSED SETTLEMENT

READ THIS NOTICE FULLY AND CAREFULLY.
THE PROPOSED SETTLEMENT MAY AFFECT YOUR RIGHTS!

IF YOU HAVE OR HAD A CHECKING ACCOUNT WITH PARK NATIONAL BANK AND YOU WERE CHARGED CERTAIN OVERDRAFT FEES BETWEEN NOVEMBER 1, 2016, AND FEBRUARY 20, 2025, YOU MAY BE ENTITLED TO A PAYMENT FROM A CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENT.

The Licking County Court of Common Pleas in Ohio has authorized this Notice.
It is not a solicitation from a lawyer.

SUMMARY OF YOUR OPTIONS AND THE LEGAL EFFECT OF EACH OPTION

DO NOTHING	If you don't do anything, you will receive a payment from the Settlement Fund so long as you do not opt out of or exclude yourself from the Settlement (described in the next box).
EXCLUDE YOURSELF FROM THE SETTLEMENT; RECEIVE NO PAYMENT BUT RELEASE NO CLAIMS	You can choose to exclude yourself from the Settlement or "opt out." This means you choose not to participate in the Settlement. You will keep your individual claims against Defendant, but you will not receive a payment for relevant Fees and/or Overdraft Forgiveness. If you exclude yourself from the Settlement but want to recover against Defendant, you will have to file a separate lawsuit or claim.
OBJECT TO THE SETTLEMENT	You can file an objection with the Court explaining why you believe the Court should reject the Settlement. If your objection is overruled by the Court, then you may receive a payment and/or Overdraft Forgiveness, and you will not be able to sue Defendant for the claims asserted in this litigation. If the Court agrees with your objection, then the Settlement may not be approved.

These rights and options—and the deadlines to exercise them—along with the material terms of the Settlement are explained in this Notice.

BASIC INFORMATION

1. What is this lawsuit about?

In the lawsuit, the Plaintiff alleges that Park National Bank assessed supposedly improper Authorized Positive Purportedly Settled Negative (“APPSN”) Fees between November 1, 2016, and February 20, 2025.

The lawsuit being settled is entitled Workman v. Park National Bank, Civil Action No. 2022 CV 01217 pending in the Licking County Common Pleas Court in Ohio. The lawsuit is a “class action.” That means that the “Class Representative,” Georgia Carol Workman, is an individual acting on behalf of current and former customers who were assessed supposedly improper APPSN Fees between November 1, 2016, and February 20, 2025. The Class Representative has asserted claims for breach of contract, including breach of the covenant of good faith and fair dealing, and unjust enrichment.

Defendant denies any and all liability to Plaintiff and the members of the Settlement Class in the Action and believes it would ultimately be successful in its defense of all claims asserted in the Action, but nevertheless desires to settle the Action, and all claims that could have been alleged therein, on the terms set forth in the Agreement solely for the purpose of avoiding the burden, expense, risk, and uncertainty of continuing these proceedings.

2. Why did I receive this Notice of this lawsuit?

You received this Notice because Defendant’s records indicate that you were charged one or more APPSN Fees that are the subject of this Action. The Court directed that this Notice be sent to all Settlement Class Members because each such member has a right to know about the proposed Settlement and the options available to him or her before the Court decides whether to approve the Settlement.

3. Why did the Parties settle?

In any lawsuit, there are risks and potential benefits that come with a trial versus settling at an earlier stage. It is the Class Representative’s and her lawyers’ job to identify when a proposed Settlement offer is good enough that it justifies recommending settling the case instead of continuing to trial. In a class action, the Class Representative’s lawyers, known as “Class Counsel,” make this recommendation to the Class Representative. The Class Representative has the duty to act in the best interests of the class as a whole and, in this case, it is her belief, as well as Class Counsel’s opinion, that this Settlement is in the best interest of all Settlement Class Members.

There is legal uncertainty about whether a judge or jury would find that Defendant was contractually and otherwise legally obligated not to assess the Fees at issue, and even if it was contractually wrong to assess these Fees, there is uncertainty about whether the Class Representative’s claims are subject to other defenses that might result in no or less recovery to Settlement Class Members. Even if the Class Representative was to win at trial, there is no assurance that the Settlement Class Members would be awarded more than the current Settlement Amount, and it may take years of litigation before any payments would be made. By settling, Settlement Class Members will avoid these and other risks and the delays associated with continued litigation.

Although Defendant disputes the allegations in the lawsuit and denies any liability or wrongdoing, it enters into the Settlement solely to avoid the expense, inconvenience, and distraction of further proceedings in the litigation.

WHO IS IN THE SETTLEMENT

4. How do I know if I am part of the Settlement?

If you received this Notice, then Defendant’s records indicate that you are a Settlement Class Member who is entitled to receive a payment or credit to your account.

YOUR OPTIONS

5. What options do I have with respect to the Settlement?

You have three options: (1) do nothing and receive a payment according to the terms of this Settlement; (2) exclude yourself from the Settlement (“opt out” of it); or (3) participate in the Settlement but object to it. Each of these options is described in a separate section below.

6. What are the critical deadlines?

There is no deadline to receive a payment. If you do nothing, you will get a payment.

The deadline for sending a letter to exclude yourself from or opt out of the Settlement is August 5, 2025.

The deadline to file an objection with the Court is also August 5, 2025.

7. How do I decide which option to choose?

If you do not like the Settlement, believe that you could receive more money by pursuing your claims on your own (with or without an attorney that you could hire), and are comfortable with the risk that you might lose your case or get less than you would in this Settlement, then you may want to consider opting out.

If you believe the Settlement is unreasonable, unfair, or inadequate and the Court should reject the Settlement, you can object to the Settlement terms. The Court will decide if your objection is valid. If the Court agrees, then the Settlement may not be approved, and no payments will be made to you or any other Settlement Class Member. If your objection (and any other objection) is overruled, and the Settlement is approved, then you may still get a payment and/or forgiveness of Fees and will be bound by the Settlement.

If you want to participate in the Settlement, then you don’t have to do anything; you will receive a payment if the Settlement is approved by the Court.

8. What must happen for the Settlement to be approved?

The Court must decide that the Settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate before it will approve it. The Court has already decided to provide Preliminary Approval of the Settlement, which is why you received a Notice. The Court will make a final decision regarding the Settlement at a “Final Approval Hearing,” which is currently scheduled for September 5, 2025, at 1:30 p.m. at the Licking County Courthouse, 1 Courthouse Square, Newark, OH 43055.

THE SETTLEMENT PAYMENT

9. How much is the Settlement?

Defendant has agreed to create a Settlement Fund of $510,000. It will also provide Overdraft Forgiveness, as defined in the Agreement.

As discussed separately below, attorneys’ fees, litigation costs, and the costs paid to a third-party Settlement Administrator to administer the Settlement (including mailing and emailing this Notice) will be paid out of the Settlement Fund. The Net Settlement Fund will be divided among all Settlement Class Members entitled to Settlement Class Member Payments based on formulas described in the Agreement.

10. How much of the Settlement Fund will be used to pay for attorneys’ fees and costs?

Class Counsel will request the Court to approve attorneys’ fees of not more than $169,999.83, equal to 33 1/3% of the Value of the Settlement, and will request that it be reimbursed for litigation costs incurred in prosecuting the case. The Court will decide the amount of the attorneys’ fees and costs based on a number of factors, including the risk associated with bringing the case on a contingency basis, the amount of time spent on the case, the amount of costs incurred to prosecute the case, the quality of the work, and the outcome of the case.

11. How much of the Settlement Fund will be used to pay the Class Representative's Service Award?

Class Counsel will request that the Class Representative be paid a Service Award in the amount of $5,000 for her work in connection with this case. The Service Award must be approved by the Court.

12. How much will my payment be?

The balance of the Settlement Fund after attorneys' fees and costs, the Service Award, and the Settlement Administrator's fees, also known as the Net Settlement Fund, will be divided among all Settlement Class Members entitled to Settlement Class Member Payments in accordance with the formulas outlined in the Agreement. Current customers of Defendant will receive a credit to their accounts for the amount they are entitled to receive. Former customers of Defendant shall receive a check from the Settlement Administrator. Settlement Class Members entitled to Overdraft Forgiveness shall receive this benefit automatically.

13. Do I have to do anything if I want to participate in the Settlement?

No. If you received this Notice, then you may be entitled to receive a Settlement Class Member Payment and/or Overdraft Forgiveness without having to make a claim, unless you choose to exclude yourself from the Settlement, or "opt out."

14. When will I receive my payment?

The Court will hold a Final Approval Hearing on September 5, 2025, at 1:30 p.m. to consider whether the Settlement should be approved. If the Court approves the Settlement, then payments should be made, or credits should be issued, within 60 days of the Effective Date. However, if someone objects to the Settlement, and the objection is sustained, then there is no settlement. Even if all objections are overruled and the Court approves the Settlement, an objector could appeal, and it might take months or even years to have the appeal resolved, which would delay any payment.

EXCLUDING YOURSELF FROM THE SETTLEMENT

15. How do I exclude myself from the Settlement?

If you do not want to receive a payment or if you want to keep any right you may have to sue Defendant for the claims alleged in this lawsuit, then you must exclude yourself, or "opt out."

To opt out, you must send a letter to the Settlement Administrator saying that you want to be excluded. Your letter can simply say, "I hereby elect to be excluded from the Settlement in the Workman v. Park National Bank class action." Be sure to include your name, the last four digits of your account number(s) or former account number(s), your address, your telephone number, and your email address. Your exclusion or opt-out request must be postmarked by August 5, 2025, and sent to:

Workman v. Park National Bank
Settlement Administrator
P.O. Box 5378
Portland, OR 97228-5378

16. What happens if I opt out of the Settlement?

If you opt out of the Settlement, you will preserve and not give up any of your rights to sue Defendant for the claims alleged in this case. However, you will not be entitled to receive a payment from the Settlement.

OBJECTING TO THE SETTLEMENT

17. How do I notify the Court that I do not like the settlement?

You can object to the Settlement or any part of it that you do not like IF you do not exclude yourself, or opt out, from the Settlement. (Settlement Class Members who exclude themselves from the Settlement have no right to object to how other Settlement Class Members are treated.) To object, you must send a written document by mail or private courier (e.g., Federal Express) to the Settlement Administrator at the address below. Your objection must include the following information:

- A statement of your intention to object to the Settlement in the Workman v. Park National Bank class action
- Your name, address, and telephone number, the last four digits of your account number(s) or former account number(s), and the contact information for any attorney you have retained in connection with this case
- A statement of the factual and legal basis for each objection and any exhibits you wish the Court to consider in connection with the objection
- A statement as to whether you intend to appear at the Final Approval Hearing, either in person or through an attorney, and, if through an attorney, identifying the attorney by name, address, and telephone number
- Your signature

All objections must be postmarked no later than August 5, 2025, and must be mailed to the Settlement Administrator as follows:

Workman v. Park National Bank
Settlement Administrator
P.O. Box 5378
Portland, OR 97228-5378

18. What is the difference between objecting and requesting exclusion from the Settlement?

Objecting is telling the Court that you do not believe the Settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate for the Settlement Class Members, and you are asking the Court to reject it. You can object only if you do not opt out of the Settlement. If you object to the Settlement and do not opt out, then you are entitled to a Settlement Class Member Payment and/or forgiveness of Fees if the Settlement is approved, but you will release claims you might have against Defendant. Excluding yourself, or opting out, is telling the Court that you do not want to be part of the Settlement, do not want to receive a Settlement Class Member Payment or Overdraft Forgiveness, and do not want to release claims you might have against Defendant for the claims alleged in this lawsuit.

19. What happens if I object to the Settlement?

If the Court sustains your objection, or the objection of any other Settlement Class Member, then there is no settlement. If you object, but the Court overrules your objection and any other objection(s), then you will be part of the Settlement.

THE COURT'S FINAL APPROVAL HEARING

20. When and where will the Court decide whether to approve the Settlement?

The Court will hold a Final Approval Hearing at 1:30 p.m. on September 5, 2025, at Licking County Courthouse, located at 1 Courthouse Square, Newark, OH 43055. At this hearing, the Court will consider whether the Settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate. If there are objections, the Court will consider them. The Court may also decide how much to award Class Counsel for attorneys' fees and litigation costs and the amount of the Service Award to the Class Representative. The hearing may be virtual, in which case the instructions to participate shall be posted on the website at LickingCountyOverdraftSettlement.com.

21. Do I have to come to the hearing?

No. Class Counsel will answer any questions the Court may have. You may attend if you desire to do so. If you have submitted an objection, then you may want to attend.

22. May I speak at the hearing?

If you object, you may ask the Court for permission to speak at the Final Approval Hearing. To do so, you must include with your objection, described in Question 17, above, the statement, "I hereby give notice that I intend to appear at the Final Approval Hearing."

THE LAWYERS REPRESENTING YOU

23. Do I have a lawyer in this case?

The Court ordered that the lawyers and their law firms referred to in this Notice as "Class Counsel" will represent you and the other Settlement Class Members.

24. Do I have to pay the lawyer for accomplishing this result?

No. Class Counsel will be paid directly from the Settlement Fund.

25. Who determines what the attorneys' fees will be?

The Court will be asked to approve the amount of attorneys' fees at the Final Approval Hearing. Class Counsel will file an application for attorneys' fees and costs and will specify the amount being sought as discussed above. You may review a physical copy of the fee application at the website established by the Settlement Administrator.
